

What Is the Nevada Democratic Caucus?

The Nevada Caucus is where you get to make your choice for Democratic presidential nominee in 2020. Nevada is the first Western state and the third state in the nation to participate in the presidential nominating process.

How can I participate?

You have two options for participating in the 2020 Caucus:

PRECINCT CAUCUS Caucus with your neighbors in your precinct!

When: Saturday, February 22, 2020

Where: Your location will be announced by January 15, 2020. Visit caucus.nvdems.com to find your precinct caucus location.

How: Arrive in person to your location to register. Precinct caucus registration opens at 10 am and the caucus begins at 12pm. Follow your Precinct Captain's instructions to stand with your candidate preference.

EARLY VOTE Vote early in person at any site in your county!

When: Saturday, February 15 - Tuesday, February 18 [You Pick the Day!]

Where: You can vote early at any early vote site in your county. Visit caucus.nvdems.com to view the full list of sites!

How: Arrive in person to any early vote location in your county. Check in at the registration desk, follow the instructions to cast your vote and leave. Your vote will be counted alongside your neighbors in your precinct on Caucus Day.

You must be a registered Democrat to participate in the Nevada Democratic Caucus. Please update your voter registration information by visiting caucus.nvdems.com or register to vote same day at any early vote site or Caucus Day site.
